

Finally the countdown is over! The day that we have all been waiting for so long has come. With the great efforts of the organization and academic teams and the hard working administrative staffs EuroAsia MUN is ready to start. A day before the conference, on the 26th of November, there was a rush at Litai Hotel in order to complete the final preparations. The organization and academic team worked really hard to satisfy your expectations. Hence, this conference could not be as magnificent as it is without their unremitting efforts. You can be sure that unforgettable memories are waiting for you! //İrem Demirci

The wait is finally over! Thanks to the endless efforts and enthusiasm of both academic and organization teams, the 10th annual session of Turkey's biggest training and development conference EuroAsia MUN started today! The 10th Opening Ceremony of EuroAsia Model United Nations Training and Development Conference begun with the speech of the President of MUNA Mr. Yunus Can Aybas. Mr. Aybas pointed out the importance of MUNA's role in inspiring the youth and carrying MUN in Turkey to another level. After this marvelous speech, the Director-General of EuroAsia MUN 2015, Ms. Cemre Aksu, took the stage, thanking both her team and all those who made the conference possible. Last but not least, the Secretary-General of EuroAsia MUN 2015 Ms. Damla Manav made her speech; mentioning the hard work of the academic team and thanking the participants for turning the conference into an amazing experience. Thus, the 10th annual session of EuroAsia MUN Training and Development Conference has officially begun. 4 days full of fiery debates and unforgettable memories are ahead of us. Live and enjoy this great experience to the fullest!

Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to the 10th annual session of EuroAsia MUN Training and Development Conference! //İlgaz Şen

Since 2005, Model United Nations Association has been organizing two of the most successful conferences in Turkey. This year, it is celebrating the 10th year anniversary of the first training and development conference in Turkey. We proudly welcome you to the tenth annual session of EuroAsia Model United Nations Training and Development Conference! Model United Nations also known as Model UN or MUN is the simulation of the UN committees which students roleplay as if they are representatives in the UN house.

At the end of most MUN conferences, you will receive a participant certificate. If you decide to work hard and be an active delegate, it is possible that you are going to take The Best Delegate award or are going to be recognized as an outstanding delegate. What are the responsibilities of each delegate? Participants should make a research about their country, take on roles as diplomats and investigate global issues, debate, persuade and develop possible solutions for this issues such as “Humanitarian Assistance in High-Risk Environments” for a SOCHUM committee. We have 4 GA committees, UN Security Council, UNESCAP, UNHRC, UNDP, UNSCW and a special 10th year committee which is historical “1917 Bolshevik Revolution”. Keep in mind that each delegate have to be aware of their country’s policy, geography, economy, culture and history in order to be an accurate delegate. We recommend you to participate the MUN 101 workshop and take your seats at this amazing atmosphere! //Övgü Nalbantoğlu

WE NEED RULES

Did you remember the moment you got a little bit scared when you first heard about rules of procedure of MUN? First step for being a MUNer is, each and every delegate have to know the procedure.

Delegates have to follow some orders during sessions. Each delegate have to know what is a roll call, the difference between raising a motion or a point, moderated or unmoderated caucuses and so on. It is essential to know these procedures, you don’t want to make chairs staring at you when you mix up motion and point.

To be more serious, it is important to make your statements and ideas clear. The differences between point or motion will be explained in the rules of procedure workshop. Also how to write a resolution, amendments and voting procedure will be explained. Pay attention to the information given in this workshop, it is going to be very useful for your debates.

If you are an inexperienced delegate we kindly recommend you to attend this workshop. It will contribute you a lot about the procedure and the main points which you should follow during the sessions. You will see it is not so hard as you think. If you are an experienced delegate you can improve yourself and your knowledge by this workshop. Questions will be answered so you are going to be %100 sure of the procedure. Therefore, if you want to be an expert

Now you got that opportunity, today at EuroAsia MUN, an official United Nations representative is ready for you to answer the questions that you are wondering about United Nations and satisfy all your curiosity about UN life. So come and start your interview, don't miss this once in a lifetime chance! // Ece Serpici

The Bolshevik Revolution, in other words the October Revolution, refers to the uprising of the Soviets tired with the ongoing Great War and fed up with the worsening economic situation of the Russian Empire, comes in the aftermath of the ineffectual governing steps taken by the Provisional Government succeeding the Tsarism. The leading role played by the Bolshevik Party supporting a change in the governing system and backed up by the soviets predestines the future of Russia.

The Committee gathering today on the Bolshevik Revolution is making efforts to answer the questions by organizing a workshop on the subject thanks to those present. We highly encourage you to participate in this workshop as it will without doubt contribute to your knowledge and critical thinking about the given subject. // Orhun Bayraktar

THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION

PANEL

Honorable delegates of EuroAsia MUN attention please! A panel discussion will be conducted with the presence of a moderator, as well as many former and current MUN participants, enabling you to have a better understanding of the subjects that will be handled throughout the Conference. Participating at this workshop, beyond any doubt, will further enhance your knowledge about the ongoing discussions and it will also give you an opportunity to find answers to each and every one of your questions related to the conference with the help of experienced MUN participants. // Yağmursu Deniz

FINAL DOCUMENT

As we all know, each delegate wants to be the Best Delegate in their committees. So what you have to do is make a great effort to come with a great resolution. What you have to do is, debate spiritedly during these four days about the world's most important issues, and find possible effective solutions. Then you are going to write a resolution. But how? Writing a resolution is one of the hardest part of MUN. The preambulatory and operative clause, amendments, signatories... Don't be afraid, if you have suggestions how to solve these global issues, writing a resolution is not such a hard work for you. If you want to know which method are you going to use, and find answers for your critical questions about the final document, we are invite you to attend this precious workshop. After this workshop, you might become one of the masters of writing a resolution.// Övgü Nalbantoğlu
